Writing	Writing Task: Setting Description Write a setting description for this still from the movie Brave. Think about all the different elements within the picture that you could describe. What type of atmosphere are you trying to create? Think about what vocabulary choices will best suit the atmosphere you are trying to achieve.	Writing Task: Continue the story starter below. Consider planning out your writing before you begin. The pages flickered, there was no breeze, as if an invisible hand was turning the pages. It stopped on page 73.	Writing Task: Character description. https://www.literacyshed.com/marshmallows.html Throughout the short film, the way the monster is portrayed changes. Write a description of the monster in both scenarios. How can you use imagery to make the monster seem vicious? How can you alter your description to make the monster seem friendly?	Imagine you discover this "shed" at the bottom of your garden. You enter the shed and the door closes gently behind you. The room is lit by candles. You see this man sat in emerald green robes, peering at you over his glasses. The candles flicker and die out. It's pitch black and he whispers Task: In 10 words only, no more and no less, what does the Wizard say to you? Try to make it mysterious and like it could start the beginning of a story.	Writing Task: Newspaper Report. (Please ensure you have read Katherine Rundell's chapter 1 of rooftoppers from Thursday's reading task). A baby is found floating in a cello case in the middle of the English Channel following a shipwreck. A baby, Sophie, is plucked from the sea by Charles, a fellow survivor. Write a newspaper report about the events at the start of the book. - how is a newspaper structured? - What types of language will you use in a newspaper report? - How can you include quotations in your news report?
