02nd March 2020

Dear Parent/Carer

As you may be aware, it is World Book Day this Thursday 5th March 2020. We have a series of activities that pupils will be engaging in over the week during form time. Pupils will be given a book token which they can put towards a book they would like to purchase or trade in from a list of prescribed texts.

As an additional event, we would like to invite all staff and students to dress up on Friday 6th March 2020. Your child can either wear:

- A full costume
- A headpiece/hat
- Face paint

(Note: if your child is only wearing a headpiece/face paint, they will need to wear full school uniform)

Pupils can choose any character they like, including one from the AR book they have read or are reading. Alternatively, they can also pick a character from a text read in lessons. In English, we cover the following texts:

Year 7	Year 8	Year 9	Year 10/11
Romeo and Juliet	Much Ado about Nothing	Julius Caesar	Macbeth
The Woman in Black	Animal Farm	Of Mice and Men	An Inspector Calls
Frankenstein	Blood Brothers	Never Let Me Go	Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

This is optional and pupils are not required to dress up. However, we would like to take this opportunity to remind you that if your child is not dressing up, they will be required to wear FULL SCHOOL UNIFORM. Sanctions will be put into place for anyone who comes in their own clothes thinking it is a mufti day.

Yours sincerely
