Home schooling – What is available on TV (BBC)

The BBC Bitesize website will be expanded to cater for home learning, while special programmes will also be broadcast on BBC iPlayer and BBC Red Button.

BBC Bitesize Daily Lessons

Launches on Monday 20th April

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/dailylessons>

From Bitesize Daily, parents and children will be directed online to BBC Bitesize for videos, quizzes, podcasts and worksheets on subjects such as Maths, English and Science, and other subjects such as history, geography and art. These shows are aimed at all children across the UK and split into age groups 5-7 years, 7-9 years, 9-11 years, 11-12, 12-13 years and 13-14 years. The website will also house guides offering help to parents about how to teach their child, advice for effective home schooling, and guides for pupils with SEN (Special Education Needs).

BBC iPlayer

BBC iPlayer will serve up specially curated content to showcase the very best curriculum-related videos and programmes. Organised by year group and subject, it will be easy for children to find and navigate further support for their learning.

BBC Sounds

Two brand new daily education podcasts will be available on BBC Sounds aimed at parents of primary and secondary pupils. Each episode will last around ten minutes and will be a guide to help families home schooling find content on the BBC that supports their education and wellbeing.

BBC Four

BBC Four will devote a block of programming each weekday evening to shows that support GCSE and A-Level curriculums. The channel will bring back premium factual programmes presented by some of Britain's most authoritative voices on Science and History.

Bitesize's social media

Bitesize's social media will look a little different for a while. Its Facebook and Twitter accounts will now focus on parents, where information including study schedules will be shared. Teenage students can still enjoy its Instagram platform, where flashcards, subject guides, memes and some lighter relief in the form of advice and encouragement from well-known faces will be readily available.

Advice about Coronavirus and online learning

The screenshot shows a Google Drive interface with a folder named "COVID-19 Service User Advice DOTW". The folder contains several documents in different languages, including Albanian, Amharic, and Arabic. The left sidebar shows the Drive navigation menu with options like "New", "My Drive", "Shared with me", "Recent", "Starred", "Bin", and "Storage" (10.2 GB of 15 GB used). The top of the folder view shows a search bar and a "Search in Drive" button.

The screenshot shows the National Online Safety (NOS) website. The header includes the NOS logo and navigation links: "Browse all", "Courses", "Lesson Plans", "Guides", "Webinars", "NEW! Essential CPD", "Certified School Programme", and "Book a Demonstration". The main content area features a large banner for "10 Top Tips: Remote Learning for Parents" with a green button that says "CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD". Below the banner, there is a section titled "About The Guide" and "10 Top Tips: Remote Learning for Parents". A "Free" badge is visible in the bottom right corner, along with a "Help" button.

Hello there, Parents and Carers!

As schools worldwide close for now in response to COVID-19, you might be wondering how best to help your child or children with their studies at home.

Always happy to help, the White Rose Maths Team has prepared a series of five maths lessons for each year group from Year 1-8. We will be adding five more each week for the next few weeks. Every lesson comes with a short video showing you clearly and simply how to help your child to complete the activity successfully.
